

Please find the test below. Please find instructions below. If you have any questions, do let us know.

- 1.) Create an API where the administration can sign up an account
- 2.) Create an API where the administrator can sign in an account
- 3.) Create an API where the customer can sign in an account
- 4.) Create an API where the customer can sign up an account
- 5.) Create a middleware Authorization header that can determine if the client accessing the API is an admin or a user
- 6.) Create an API where it returns hello world using authorization header with JWT Token and this API can only be access by admin
- 7.) Create an API where it returns hello world using authorization header with JWT Token and this API can only be access by the customer
- 8.) Database must use a sqlite locally when run
- 9.) Document your API using swagger

When the task is completed upload the code to a GitHub repository and send the link to hr@ulventech.com.